Principal's Message:

Welcome back and Happy 2018! As you know from my outlandish Eagle-wear, I am the biggest Eagle Fan that ever was. By that token, I would like to be the first to wish our Eagles a grand start to their 2018 basketball season which kicks off this coming Friday, January 12th with our first home event. The Eagles will play the T-Jacks on Friday and Saturday so clear your schedule and come join us for some amazing basketball action. We will also have our adorable cheerleading squad performing and the debut of our new Pep Band. The Lady Eagles will play the Rookies in King Cove so we wish them luck in their first game as well.

Recognizing our kids for their achievements is a top priority and I LOVE to sing their praises. So be sure to Mark Your Calendars for:

Aleutians East Borough School District

Essay Contest

To attend the

AASB Leadership & Legislative Fly-In

In Juneau, Alaska February 10-13, 2018

Students in Grades 9-12

Purpose of the trip to Juneau:

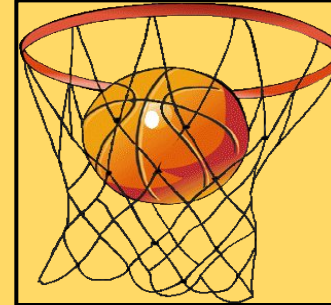

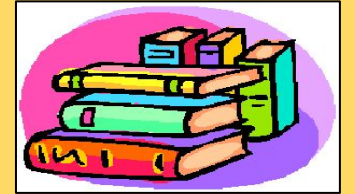

- Give students the opportunity to develop and practice skills to create a more vocal youth in their school and community.
- Students will learn about the Alaska State Legislative process and issues impacting their education.
- Have the opportunity to connect with peers from across the state and participate in conversations with their district's board members.

Essay Question:

If funding were not an issue, what three (3) electives would you want to see offered in your school, and why?

Entries will be judged on the students' writing skills as well as the essay contents. Do not include your school or community name in the essay as it will be judged anonymously. Essays must be a minimum of 350 words to a maximum 1250 words in a minimum of 5 paragraphs. Deadline for submission: Friday, January 12, 2018 by 4:00 PM. Submit to your School Principal. Two students will be selected for the district.
