Principal's Message

I would like to take a moment to recognize our many Eagles of the Week from 2018. Our Eagle of the Week program has recognized 15 of our outstanding secondary students for illustrating the high qualities of a student deserving of praise for their work ethic, leadership, kindness, enthusiasm, being a role model, great attitudes, and respect towards staff and students. The following is a recap of those students and what they were nominated for:

Wishing all of our Eagles and families a very restful break. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! See you all January 2nd when school resumes.

6th Grade Responses to Significant Sayings

Make kindness your modus operandi and change your world.

- Annie Lennox

Make kindness part of your life. If a person shows kindness to another,
he/she might say in their head-Wow, she was really nice. Maybe I should try that to another. It's like something you do every day.
You can be kind doing dishes, family time, etc. Anyplace you are.
There is always a good side of you for kindness. It's like that saying- he who gives kindness to another has a golden heart, but he who has no active kindness has a heart of stone.

-Lexus Kalmakoff

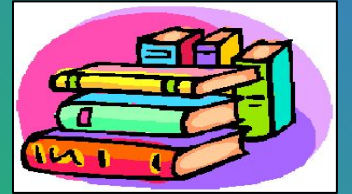

Caught Being Good Corner

Shyann Kalmakoff is our Caught Being Good student of the week.

She received a free
slushie from the AC Store and a book from the Sunshine Library.
Good job Shyann!

This is what Snow Days at Preschool looks like! We had fun doing our Science Experiment using the fresh snow!

Winter weather is here!

Please make sure that students are dressed for the weather. Coats, hats, and gloves are a good idea every day. If there is snow on the ground, don't forget snow pants and boots.

A BIG THANK YOU

The senior class of 2019 would like to thank everyone for their continued support. We really enjoyed the Christmas Bazaar and all the vendors and people that showed up. Thank you and happy holidays.

Eagle of the Week
December 3 – December 7

Chance Griffith

Nominated for being a top-notch student who shows respect, self-responsibility, and leadership. He attended AASG and reported at the Board meeting with maturity and confidence.

Eagle of the Week
December 10 – December 14

Edmond Cumberlidge
Repeat Eagle of the Week

Nominated for being a kid who deserves to be recognized again as Eagle of the Week. He coordinates all of our audio tech needs at SPS. He is called upon for any and all microphone and sound booth/lighting requests. He is taken from class often times and willingly without complaint offers assistance. Most recently for our Spelling Bee and this week he is the sound/light point man for our concert. Edmond is much deserving of another nomination for EotW. It is fitting that he started us off Sem 1 as the 1st EotW. Getting EotW once should not prevent a student from getting the praise and recognition again if deserved.
